Position Overview

H Foundation for the Arts is seeking a dedicated Art Curator to develop and oversee exhibitions that align with the foundation's mission of championing artistic expression rooted in Asian and diasporic cultures. The curator will be responsible for researching contemporary artists, conceptualizing exhibitions, collaborating with cultural partners, and engaging the public through curatorial programming. This role requires a deep understanding of contemporary art practices, strong research and writing skills, and the ability to manage multiple projects effectively.

Key Responsibilities

- Develop and curate exhibitions that align with the foundation's mission.
- Conduct research on contemporary artists, with a focus on Asian and diasporic art practices.
- Collaborate with artists, galleries, and cultural institutions to bring exhibitions to life.
- Write curatorial essays, exhibition texts, and promotional materials.
- Oversee installation and deinstallation of exhibitions.
- Engage with the public through artist talks, panel discussions, and guided tours.
- Work closely with the communications team to promote exhibitions and programs.
- Assist with grant writing and funding proposals related to curatorial projects.

Qualifications

- Bachelor's or Master's degree in Art History, Curatorial Studies, or a related field.
- At least 2-5 years of experience in curatorial work, museum or gallery settings, or cultural institutions.
- Strong knowledge of contemporary art, particularly Asian and diasporic artistic practices.
- Excellent research, writing, and public speaking skills.
- Experience working with artists, collectors, and institutional partners.
- Ability to manage multiple projects and deadlines effectively.
- Passion for community engagement and cultural exchange.

Compensation

Salary is competitive and will be determined based on experience.

How to Apply

Please send your resume, cover letter, and a curatorial portfolio or writing samples to info@h4art.org with the subject line: [Your Name] – Curator. Applications will be reviewed on a rolling basis.
